Niyat for Fasting

Allahumma Asumu-Ghadallaka Fagfiri
Maakaddamtu Wama-Akhartu

Meaning 'O Allah, for Thy glory do I fast, forgive me (I implore) for all my sins'

Prayer When Breaking Fast

Allahumma Laka-Sumtu Wa-BikaAmantu
Wa-Alaika Tawakkaltu Wa-Alaa Rizkika
Aftartu Fatakabbal-Minni

Meaning 'O Allah, for Thy glory have I fasted. I have believed and entrusted myself to Thee & I break my fast with the provision from Thee, thus accept from me my fast'.

IMPORTANT POINTS ON FASTING

- * A sick person who fears that his/her illness will worsen is exempted from fasting however must make up the loss.
- * A sharee traveller is exempted from fasting, however it is better for him/her to fast in Ramadan than to keep qadah later, provided the journey is not a tiresome one.
- * Fasting is forbidden on the two Eids and on 3 days of tashriq.
- * Fast does not break because of wet dreams. However bath is compulsory
- * If one has not eaten before dawn through over sleep etc. must make niyyat on awakening and continue fasting.
- * One whose fast is accidental broken must not eat until Magrib.
- * Deliberate breaking of a fast requires making up the fast and kaffarah. Kaffarah is 60 consecutive days of fasting. If one is unable to then to feed 60 poor people 2 full meals or give each poor person 1.640kg of wheat or 3.280kg of dates or it's equivalent in cash.
- * Only when life is endangered through ill health is one allowed to a break fast. However missed days have to be filled in.
- * It is sunnah to break a fast with a date or something sweet.
- Equivalent value of fidya for poor is calculated on current fitra value.
